Reflection

Our readings offer us examples of how we should be living, and they present us with an opportunity to make a radical change in our lives. In our first reading, Joshua tells the leaders of the Israelites to decide as to who they shall serve in this life. As he presents them with this choice, he boldly states, “As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.” Who or what does your household serve? Whether you are a household of one or twelve, now is the time to decide, ‘will we serve the Lord?’

Stewardship

With this in mind, we must strive each day to intentionally live as disciples of Christ. It starts with commitment — incorporating personal daily prayer and increasing that prayer week by week, incorporating prayer into our marriages and families, frequenting the sacraments, and serving others. Through this time with the Lord and service to those around us, He will reveal to us where to go next. Reflect on how you may not be putting God first in your life and decide to respond like the Israelites, “Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods... Therefore we also will serve the Lord, for he is our God.”

Prayer for Rain:

Heavenly Father, we come before You today in need of the nourishing rains from Your heavenly reserves. In Your wisdom, You water the earth and care for all Your creation. We ask humbly for the skies to open and for the rain to fall upon our parched lands. Provide us with the rain we need to sustain our bodies and spirits. May each drop be a blessing that reminds us of Your ever-present love.
